The readings for the Seventh Sunday after Trinity are:

A reading from the Letter to the Colossians

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Colossians 1. 1-14

A reading from the Gospel of Luke

A lawyer stood up to test Jesus. 'Teacher,' he said, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He answered, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.' And he said to him, 'You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.'

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend." Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?' He said, 'The one who showed him mercy.' Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'

Luke 10. 25-37

Collect

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things:
graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us true religion, nourish us
with all goodness, and of your great mercy
keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live:
may we so receive within ourselves
the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Organ voluntary after the service: Clavier Übung ('Keyboard Exercises'), Volume 3, 1739: Prelude upon the hymn Wir glauben all' an einem Gott, BWV 680 ('We all believe in one God') – J S Bach (1685-1750)

Gradual Hymn

When I needed a neighbour, were you there, were you there?
When I needed a neighbour, were you there?

And the creed and the colour and the name won't matter, were you there?

I was hungry and thirsty...
I was cold I was naked...
When I needed a shelter...
When I needed a healer...

Wherever you travel, I'll be there, I'll be there
Wherever you travel, I'll be there
And the creed and the colour and the name won't matter
I'll be there

Quiet Day: Our next quiet day is this coming Saturday 16th July at Goosebury Hall Quiet Garden in Epping. The journey is about an hour and we will share cars, arriving for a 10.30am start and leaving around 4.00pm. Cost is £5 to include a light lunch. Please sign up on the sheet at the back of church - it is still not too late! If you have not experienced a quiet day why not give this a try?

Messy Church: The dates for Messy Church - a time of craft, worship and food - for the remainder of this year are as follows: Saturday 6th August, Friday 23rd September, Sunday 6th November and Saturday 3rd December. All sessions will run from 3.30 pm- 5.00 pm.

Sundays at Six: Next week's Sundays at Six service - the last before the usual summer break - will be a Prayer Walk on Ray Mill Island. Please meet at the bridge onto the island at 5.45pm.

Today's organ voluntary: Listen to the first four notes: D, upwards to A, down to G sharp, and back to A. Now listen to the bass in the pedals, a figure unrelated musically to anything else here, as it strides upward then falls zig-zag to its starting note. These are the technical foundations of this strong and uncompromising prelude. The text of the hymn upon which this piece is based is a metrical version by Martin Luther of the Nicene Creed, Credo in unum Deum. The melody is a version of a Roman Catholic plainsong melody of the Creed, its transformation into a hymn almost certainly also by Luther. Bach's prelude takes the first four notes of Luther's melody, extends them by suggesting other notes of Luther's first line, and makes this the thematic basis of the piece. It is a fugue, the theme entering at different pitches in a call and response fashion. Bach uses little else of Luther's melody, apart from his last line – 'all things stand in his power' – which appears in long notes in the tenor shortly before the end. Go back to those first four notes. Their words are Wir glauben all, 'we all believe'. As the fugue develops, the impression intensifies of the organ singing those words repeatedly. And that bass line? The writer Peter Williams describes it as unquestionably suggesting 'firm faith'. Luther's melody and text of the Creed are sung to this day by German Lutheran congregations, to whom these allusions are as contemporary as when Bach first put quill to parchment.

INFORMATION

PCC: The PCC met on Tuesday 05th July 2016 and the following matters were raised:

- The Reverend Sally Lynch thanked all the people who had in any way assisted with the Flower Festival, Summer Fair and Nicola's reception following her ordination.
- Contactors are urged to return their Pastoral Visits forms as requested.
- The treasurer presented his half yearly budget report and this showed that the Summer Fair, Plant Sale and Flower Festival raised a total of £2184.54 for the General Fund. We are on course to pay our Parish Share. The latest budget forecast however shows that we will have a yearend deficit in the General Fund of £3,974, which, if necessary, can come from our General Fund reserves.
- Re-ordering: the DAC fully endorsed our revised plans with one proviso in relation to additional heating. The revised faculty application has been submitted. The new notice along with the revised Statement of Need and Statement of Significance are now displayed. The Chancellor will now write to all the original objectors and we await the result of his decision.
- We looked at our new Mission Action Plan, copies of which will be available for the whole church. The PCC will continue to monitor and work on achieving what is set out in the plan through working groups.
- We looked at the future events which form part of our 150th Birthday celebration.
- The PCC looked at two new programmes:
  - * Renewal and Reform is the Church of England's plans for the future, recognising the need for change.
  - * Umoja UK is a programme to move the church forward within its local community. We have been invited to participate in this by Bishop Andrew.
- The PCC agreed that the 8.00am Eucharist Service on a Sunday will no longer be Order One liturgy (traditional language) but change to Order Two liturgy (the same as the 10.00am service), retaining BCP on the third Sunday.

Church Care Time: Many thanks to all who came along on 2nd July (and who do at other times) and helped to keep our church in good shape.

Rota: The new rota for Crucifers/Acolytes & Chalice Assistants has been sent out by email. If you have not received it, please let me know. Nicola Buckland.
