If you are new to St. Luke's please do make yourself known to the ministers or a member of the Welcome Team, who can give you a contact card to complete. Please do join us after the 10.00am service for coffee which will be served in the fellowship area at the back of church.

You might like to know that...

... our Baby and Toddler area is at the front with quiet toys and books. Do feel free to sit there with your children. For older children we have activity bags so that they can sit with you in the pews, just ask a sidesperson for one.

... we have large print orders of service and hymn books. If you would like one please ask someone wearing a name badge.

... we have a loop system for those using hearing aids.

... the toilets are through the double doors at the front of church.

... if you would like to receive an intincted wafer at communion please come to the south side of the altar and indicate to the minister.

... we have many activities going on during the week. For a full list please ask a person with a name badge

... we send out a weekly email update. If you would like to be added to the list please email the Parish Office on admin@stlukeschurchmaidenhead.org.uk

Pastoral Care: If you have or know of any particular pastoral need (visiting, home communion, etc) please speak to our Pastoral Coordinator, Sue Hinchliffe in the first instance (01628 784724).

The Readings for Trinity 20

A Reading from Hebrews

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 4.12-16

A Reading from the Gospel of Mark

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: "You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother."' He said to Jesus, 'Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.' Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!' And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, 'Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' They were greatly astounded and said to one another, 'Then who can be saved?' Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.'

Peter began to say to him, 'Look, we have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'Truly I tell you there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age – houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields – but with persecutions – and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.'

Mark 10.17-31

Jesus Christ is waiting,
Waiting in the streets;
No one is his neighbour,
All alone he eats.
Listen, Lord Jesus,
I am lonely too.
Make me, friend or stranger,
Fit to wait on you

Jesus Christ is raging,
Raging in the streets,
Where injustice spirals
And real hope retreats.
Listen, Lord Jesus,
I am angry too.
In the Kingdom's causes
Let me rage with you.

Jesus Christ is healing,
Healing in the streets;
Curing those who suffer,
Touching those he greets.
Listen, Lord Jesus,
I have pity too.
Let my care be active,
Healing just like you.

Jesus Christ is dancing,
Dancing in the streets,
Where each sign of hatred
He, with love, defeats.
Listen, Lord Jesus,
I should triumph too.
On suspicion's graveyard
Let me dance with you.

Collect

God, the giver of life,
whose Holy Spirit wells up within
your Church:
by the Spirit's gifts equip us to live
the gospel of Christ
and make us eager to do your will,
that we may share with the whole creation
the joys of eternal life;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,

Post Communion

God our Father,
whose Son, the light unfailing,
has come from heaven to deliver the world
from the darkness of ignorance:
let these holy mysteries open the eyes of our understanding that we may know the way of life,
and walk in it without stumbling;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Jesus Christ is calling,
Calling in the streets,
"Who will join my journey?
I will guide their feet."
Listen, Lord Jesus,
Let my fears be few.
Walk one step before me;
I will follow you.

Baptism Contactors: We have set a meeting for Thursday 8th November at 8pm in church to talk through some ideas and begin some ‘training’ for baptism contactors. Please do come along if you’d like to.

Mini Teaching series: Biblical women. This series started last week and will run for four consecutive Thursdays, at 8.00 pm in church. We will think about Martha and Mary, Anna, Mary Magdalene, and ‘Jesus’ female disciples’. Everyone is warmly invited to each or any session.

Memorial Service: 4th November, 4pm. The list of names to be remembered and read out are at the back of church (as last year). Please tick names that you would like to be read out this year and add any not on the list.

Come and Sing Psalms for the Common Era: A chance to sing through psalms re-written to familiar tunes on Saturday 10th November, 9.30 am—4. pm, £7.50 pp here (bring a packed lunch, drinks and cake provided). Please book a place by emailing admin@stlukeschurchmaidenhead.org.uk. This will be a really good day led by the Revd. Dr. Adam Carlill from Tilehurst – do come along and bring friends. Booking is essential so that we can provide resources. If you would like to purchase a copy of the book that we will be using the details are as follows: Psalms for the Common Era : Complete Psalter Anglican Edition: Hebrew Psalms in Modern Metrical English for Individuals, Choirs and Congregations. By Dr Adam Carlill, ISBN-13: 978-1983076534

Living and Praying with the Psalms: Saturday 1st December, at All Saints church. Led by Revd. Dr. John Bell of the Iona Community this day will be very popular so please sign up asap here in church. £5 pp – please pass payment before the day to the Parish office.

Autumn Quiet Day: Saturday 20th October. Ascot Priory. £5 a person, with places limited to 12 . 10am-3.30pm. Sign up as usual.

Knitted poppies: This year the W.I. will be helping us to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the end of WWI by displaying knitted poppies and around church. If you would like to contribute some poppies too please take a pattern from the back of church and knit one / some. Please deliver your knitted poppies to the box at the back of church asap.

WAMCF Women's Group: This Wednesday 17th October, 1.30pm-3.00pm, SGI UK, Taplow Court. Ladies of all faith or none are welcome for refreshments and to hear Toni Ann speak about what Buddhists believe. For more details speak to Revd Sally Task Group: Tuesday 16th October, 8pm. The following task groups will meet in church: music, social gospel, and our older members. All welcome.

INFORMATION

Safeguarding training: The Diocese of Oxford is working towards creating a Church which is safer for everyone. There have been some significant changes in the safeguarding training modules and expectations for all Church of England communities. To that end a number of training modules have been developed. The basic ones are available to all church members and more advanced ones are essential for those who work with young people or vulnerable folk (which is quite a lot of us!). We strongly advise all members of the congregation to register for the first unit (CO Basic Awareness) which can be completed online. Many people will also need to complete CI (Foundation) which may also be done online. Team leaders will advise who should do this – but anyone can register to do so.

To access this e-learning:

- Go to: <https://safeguardingtraining.cofeportal.org/>
- Select 'online courses'
- Select C0 or C1
- If you have not used the e-learning before then you will need to register as a new user. Click on 'create new account'
- Create username and password
- Enter your email address and confirm this
- First name and surname
- City and country
- Diocese- select from drop down list
- Training institute-if not part of a training institution select 'Not part of a training institution' which is option 1 in the drop down menu
- Enter your parish name and church role

Once you have completed a module please email Dorothy Strack Hankey, Safeguarding officer, to let her know so that she can update our records. A new safeguarding email address will be notified asap.

If you would prefer to come into the parish office and have someone work through the unit with you please email or ring Ruth and she can arrange that.

We are arranging the next levels of training (which are face to face) for those who need it, next Spring, so please can everyone complete levels CO and C1 by 31st December. Thank you. Revd. Sally

Inspire magazine: The next issue of our church magazine will be out in time for the Christmas Tree Festival. Please send me your articles and / or pictures to inspire@stlukeschurchmaidenhead.org.uk by 9pm on Wednesday 7th November. Please note that I cannot accept submissions beyond the deadline. Thank you. Louisa Ellins, Editor

Keys Audit: If you hold church keys and have not yet got back to Dave Sopp please speak to him asap.

Winter Wonderland: Our Christmas Tree Festival will soon be here! On Friday 7th December, in the evening, the choir will be holding a “Winter Wonderland” concert of Christmas songs. We would welcome participation at this concert to add to the variety – maybe a Christmas poem, or a Christmas sketch, or who would like to sing or play an instrument. If you would like to take part please have a word with Adam via the parish office.

SOCIAL and FUNDRAISING

Christmas Day Lunches: Churches Together in Maidenhead are keen to hear from volunteers to help with their Christmas Day Lunch for the elderly lonely at the SportsAble venue in Braywick Road. There are opportunities to drive, serve food and befriend guests at this celebration. Please contact Lily Peacock, volunteer coordinator, on lilyandwinnietim@gmail.com or telephone (home) 01628 623362, (mobile) 07794 397132

Kori Stitch up: on Thursday 1st November from 2-4pm in the Community Hall, as usual. Come along for a sociable afternoon to help this area of rural Sierra-Leone. Tea and cakes and chat, as usual. Gill Curry. 01628 625196

Thank you: On Monday 22nd October between 3-5pm in the community hall. Jilly and Janet are hosting an afternoon of tea, cake and nibbles. Everyone is invited. Janet Trinkwon

Keep the Home Fires Burning: Reflections for Remembrance, Sunday 28th October, 3pm, £5 pp (incl. tea)

Keep the Home Fires Burning with Wind and Words is a recital of clarinet and poetry, about The First World War. Accompanied by piano, it combines tunes of the period with poetry, weaving them into one continuous performance. Much of the programme consists of poems written by poets who served in The Great War, including Siegfried Sassoon, Rupert Brooke, John Mcrae, Wilfred Owen and Isaac Rosenberg. The music, made famous at the time, features a range of composers including Ivor Novello, Jerome Kern and Irving Berlin.

Christmas Tree Festival: 7th—9th December

Winter Wonderland: An evening with St. Luke's Choir, Friday 7th December, 7.30 pm, cost TBC
