The Readings for Trinity 13

A Reading from Ephesians

Be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power. Put on the whole armour of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armour of God, so that you may be able to withstand on that evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. Stand therefore, and fasten the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness. 15As shoes for your feet put on whatever will make you ready to proclaim the gospel of peace. With all of these, take the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert and always persevere in supplication for all the saints. Pray also for me, so that when I speak, a message may be given to me to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it boldly, as I must speak.

Ephesians 6.10-20

A Reading from the Gospel of John

Jesus said to the crowd: 'Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live for ever.' He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum.

When many of his disciples heard it, they said, 'This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?' But Jesus, being aware that his disciples were complaining about it, said to them, 'Does this offend you? Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh is useless. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But among you there are some who do not believe.' For Jesus knew from the first who were the ones that did not believe, and who was the one that would betray him. And he said, 'For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by the Father.'

Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him. So Jesus asked the twelve, 'Do you also wish to go away?' Simon Peter answered him, 'Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God.'

John 6. 56-69

Post Communion

God our creator,
you feed your children with the true
manna,
the living bread from heaven:
let this holy food sustain us through our earthly pilgrimage until we come to that place where hunger and thirst are no more;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Collect

Almighty God, who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself:
help us to proclaim the good news of your love, that all who hear it may be drawn to you;
through him who was lifted up on the cross, and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

This morning's hymns at 10am:

P:	571	Soldiers of Christ arise
G:	423	Fight the good fight
O:	448	God of grace and God of glory
HC:	466	How shall I sing that majesty
R:	386	Be thou my vision

WORSHIP AND SPIRITUALITY

Sunday 8am services and Saturday Morning Prayer: Sunday 8am services will resume on 2nd September and Saturday Morning Prayer will resume on 8th September.

Harvest Service: Harvest will soon be upon us! During our “Inspiring Music in Worship” sessions we talked about having an odd congregational practice. At our Harvest service, on Sunday 30th September, we will be changing the mass setting that we use to “The Wiltshire Service”.

Therefore, if you would like to come along on Friday 28th September at 8pm for a “congregational practice” of this setting, together with a sing through of the Harvest hymns, then we can really lift the roof on during our Harvest service. All welcome.

We are also looking to put together a family choir to sing the beautiful anthem “Look at the world” by John Rutter. We are especially looking for children to come and join us. If you are free, or your children would like to be part of this, please let Adam know.

INFORMATION

Sabbatical: Please note that Revd Sally is on sabbatical leave until 4th September. In her absence Revd Nicola (07966 395104 or nicola.hulks@hotmail.co.uk) is your first port of call.

Finance: at Standing Committee recently our treasurer reported that we are currently looking at a large general fund deficit at the end of the year. This is the result of a number of factors and we need, as a whole church, to address our finances positively. There are two immediate opportunities to do that:

- Prayer (both personal and corporate)
- We will have an open church meeting on Tuesday 25th September at 8.00 pm (in place of the Lettings – and others – task group) to explore our response to our finances.

Parish Office: Please note the parish office will be closed on Monday 27th August and will be open as normal on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Winter Wonderland: Our Christmas Tree Festival will soon be here! On Friday 7th December, in the evening, the choir will be holding a “Winter Wonderland” concert of Christmas songs. We would like to welcome anybody who has a Christmas poem, or a Christmas sketch, or who would like to sing or play an instrument, to contact Adam as soon as possible.

Heartfelt thanks for all the support we have received since May's death—the numerous letters, cards and 'phone calls— May was a special lady to so many people witnessed by the number who attended the service of Thanksgiving in what we know as her church.

The service was comforting and meaningful conducted by Nicola assisted by Sonya, a feeling of love and friendship was so noticeable in church that afternoon. The flowers were spectacular the music “just right” and the atmosphere continued in the hall where so many, under the leadership of Jean T.D worked hard to produce a spread enjoyed by many who un-ceasingly recalled memories of May.

It is hard to express how deeply all this means to the family, it was so fitting for May and after a long life may she now rest in peace and our loving memories remain with us.

Thank you all

Jennifer, Tony, Wendy and Phyllis
