Week commencing: 15th November 2020 Second Sunday before Advent

Blessed are those who trust in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord.
They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream.
It shall not fear when heat comes, and its leaves shall stay green; in the year of drought it is not anxious, and it does not cease to bear fruit. Jeremiah 17. 7-8

This little passage from the Old Testament was sent to me by a friend this week. It struck me as very beautiful, and also encouraging as we continue to journey through challenging times. We have already celebrated Lent, Holy Week and Easter in a very different way. Now we look to Christmas, which will be very different too this year, even if some restrictions are lifted.

As we approach Advent and the start of a new year for the church, it is good to remind ourselves that, however feeble our trust in God may feel, it is there and He is there, with us in these most strange of times. Perhaps this is time to re-commit ourselves to following God and trusting in His refreshing and sustaining love.

Next week is 'Stir-up Sunday'. Have you made your Christmas pudding yet? Watch out for an Advent delivery from St. Luke's in the next couple of weeks, a little 'something' to help you through Advent.

This Sunday we are offering a Zoomed Service of the Word, broadcast from church, at 10 am. The order of service is attached to the weekly email and can be found on the website too. Please do join us, and you might like to 'stay for coffee' (yes, provide your own!) and to join a breakout room to chat to others for a while. The link to join the service is:

Rotas for next week (Christ the King) – on Zoom:

Read: Bridget Morris (Ephesians 1.15-end)

Intercede: Shula Tajima

Our church is floodlit at night.

*This week the floodlighting has been sponsored this week by Mike and Lisa:
'praying for safety, patience and kindness during lockdown'*

To sponsor the floodlighting just call or email Revd. Sally.

What's on... and other news...

Do stay in touch with us during lockdown – and let us know if there us anything you need.

We have become aware that some people's internet provision is not as good as it might be with slower speeds and poor quality. If you are having difficulty you like to ask Dave Sopp's advice, he has helped a number of people recently – Revd Sally is very happy to forward enquiries.

Well prepared: our course on living well and being prepared for our ending (and letting go into new life) comes to an end this week. Thanks to everyone who has contributed. Last week's session included some beautiful music as we shared our choices of 'music to go out to'!

If you have not already done so, you may like to think about the choices you would like for you own funeral (hopefully a long way ahead, but we never know ...). You could note down somewhere accessible your thoughts about music, hymns, readings and so on. Funerals are important occasions and here at St. Luke's we seek to make them as personal as possible, with a message of thanksgiving for lives well lived and hope in eternal life.

The DeathLife website has this lovely prayer walk that is really intended to be set up in church but with a little preparation you could do this at home. Why not try?

Quiet morning: And in preparation for Advent, Revd. Phyl will be leading a Zoomed Quiet Morning on Saturday 28th November, from 9.45 am p- 12.30 pm. Everyone is warmly invited to join in , having a little space for reflection together on Zoom and in the comfort of your own home - or walking nearby. It would help Phyl if you could just her know that you'd like to join in – she may have a little something to get to you beforehand! Email: fourbeaus@btinternet.com

Advent Sunday: on 29th November our 10 am service will be the Advent Ring Service, zoomed from church. At this service, which is familiar to many of you, we will be lighting all five of the candles on our Advent Ring as we recall the story of Advent. You may like to have your own Advent Ring or Wreath at home and light your candles along with us. Traditionally the church uses three purple candles (the colour of the season), one pink (for Mary) and a white in the centre, but you could use any candles you like, of any shape or size or colour. At Messy Church the following Friday we will make Mini Advent Rings with coloured nightlights.

Christmas Tree (Trail (in lieu of a festival):

So far we have just over 30 trees booked into out trail – we need at least double that so please do encourage people to take part. We also need now:

Offers of help to distribute posters etc

You to print and display the CTT poster with this email

TELL people about it and encourage entries

Prayer for the whole event.

Messy Church: we will be doing Messy Christmas at 4pm on Zoom on Friday 4th December. Do contact Revd. Sally for the Zoom link (not public for safeguarding reasons) and for an advance craft pack.

Bishop Olivia led our last Deanery Synod with a very helpful address and discussion. You can hear her address here: <https://youtu.be/ydQLmU-1IZA>

Smile Amazon Fundraising: as you do your online Christmas shopping, don't forget to sue Amazon Smile and EasyFundraising:

<https://smile.amazon.co.uk/> 1129951 will immediately list just us in the search results – click the Select button to confirm the choice.
