Week commencing: 19th June 2022 Trinity 1

Sadly, this week's confirmation has had to be postponed, as Bishop Olivia is unwell. We are just finalising a new – midweek evening - date and will confirm that (no pun intended) asap. Our service this Sunday will therefore be a parish communion service, using the prayers and readings for Trinity 1.

The Collect

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and,
because through the weakness of our mortal nature
we can do no good thing without you,
grant us the help of your grace,
that in the keeping of your commandments
we may please you both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen,

The Post Communion Prayer

Eternal Father,
we thank you for nourishing us
with these heavenly gifts:
may our communion strengthen us in faith,
build us up in hope,
and make us grow in love;
for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from Paul's letter to the Galatians

Before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. 24Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. 25But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, 26for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. 27As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ; 28There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. 29And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise. Galatians 3.23- end

The Gospel reading

Jesus and his disciples arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. 27As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. 28When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me' – 29for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) 30Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. 31They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

32 Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. 33 Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. 34 When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. 35 Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. 36 Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. 37 Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. 38 The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

Luke 8.26-39

Sunday's Hymns:

163 All hail the power of Jesus' name
 Sht We are called
 505 Lord Jesus Christ
 609 To God be the glory

Thought for the week:

The story of Jesus casting out demons from the man named 'Legion' is an odd one. At that time people believed that mental ill health, epilepsy, and other known illnesses today, were instead caused by demon possession. Such people were isolated and cast out of villages for the safety of all. Whatever the cause of this man's sickness, the story makes it clear that Jesus had compassion on him (even though he was not Jewish) and cured him. There is a lovely ironic touch as the 'demons' are cast out into unclean pigs, who drown in the Sea of Galilee – thus ensuring a complete cure - they cannot come back.

It is very easy today to feel the burden of legion (very many) pressures – to feel perhaps like the man in this children's depiction of the story – with a whole host of problems emanating from him. If Jesus could cure the man in the tombs 2000 years ago, he can heal people today too. Sometimes that healing takes the form of a simple peace that helps ease life's burdens, sometimes it needs medical or professional intervention too, to help alleviate the pressures of life. Jesus still wants people to be whole and offers his healing peace and love to all who will receive it.
