Week Commencing: 19th November, Second Sunday before Advent

This Sunday the national church keeps as Safeguarding Sunday and we will reflect on this a little at our main 10 am service of Parish Communion. There will be an activity for any children present. Sundays at Six is a service of Wholeness and Healing at All Saints, to which all are warmly invited.

Some of us are going to join in with Mitzvah Day at the synagogue after the morning service. If anyone would like to contribute to the charitable collections as part of that please do bring items to church Sunday morning so that we can take them with us:

We are collecting donations for 2 Berkshire charities, to which your congregation is welcome to contribute if they wish. The Cow Shed needs good quality second hand or new children's books, toys and clothing. In addition, First Days is running their Christmas grotto where they collect new toys so parents who can't afford them can choose a new toy for their children at Christmas. They link to what they need is here if this might be something people could support: <https://www.firstdays.net/christmas-2023>.

The Collect

Heavenly Father, whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil
and to make us the children of God
and heirs of eternal life:
grant that we, having this hope,
may purify ourselves even as he is pure;
that when he shall appear in power and great glory
we may be made like him
in his eternal and glorious kingdom;
where he is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God now and for ever

Post Communion

Gracious Lord,
in this holy sacrament
you give substance to our hope:
bring us at the last
to that fullness of life for which we long;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

First Reading

<sup>1</sup>Concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. <sup>2</sup>For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup>When they say, 'There is peace and security,' then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labour pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! <sup>4</sup>But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; <sup>5</sup>for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. <sup>6</sup>So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; <sup>7</sup>for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. <sup>8</sup>But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. <sup>9</sup>For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup>who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. <sup>11</sup>Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

1 Thessalonians 5.1-11

Gospel Reading

Jesus said to his disciples, <sup>14</sup>‘The kingdom of heaven is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; <sup>15</sup>to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. <sup>16</sup>The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. <sup>17</sup>In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. <sup>18</sup>But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money. <sup>19</sup>After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. <sup>20</sup>Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, ‘Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.’ <sup>21</sup>His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’ <sup>22</sup>And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, ‘Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.’ <sup>23</sup>His master said to him, ‘Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.’ <sup>24</sup>Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, ‘Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; <sup>25</sup>so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.’ <sup>26</sup>But his master replied, ‘You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? <sup>27</sup>Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. <sup>28</sup>So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. <sup>29</sup>For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. <sup>30</sup>As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’’

Matthew 25. 14-30

Sunday’s Hymns:

676	Immortal, invisible	657	Help us to help each other
511	Your voice, O God, outsings the stars of morning	127	Lord Jesus, think on me
595	Be thou my vision

Thought for the week:

In the parable of the talents Jesus shows us that by using well what God has given us, there is much in which to invest our gifts, talents and hope. And that includes money.

Christians sometimes have an uneasy relationship with money, feeling that it is somehow wrong to be anything other than poor. Yet this passage tells us pretty clearly that it’s not the possession of money that is wrong, but what we do (or don’t do) with it. Neither silver nor gold will buy us into God’s good books, and keeping money for ourselves (if you interpret the story of the talents literally) is just not on. The money we have, or something else that we could regard as ‘in kind’, is a gift from God; think of it as a loan if you like – which means it must be paid back. How might we do that? If action inconveniences us, as it did the man who buried his talent, is that a reason for doing nothing? Does doing nothing make us complicit?

From Roots on the Web

Next week we will all receive our annual 'thank you' note for what we have given to the life of this church, this year, and we will be invited to pray about what we might offer in the coming year (so that PCC can budget). This parable might help us as we pray through our giving.

CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVAL: 8th – 10th December (set up day Weds 6th)

Catering for the Christmas Tree Festival

Just a reminder about cakes that we need for the festival. The three basics are Lemon drizzle, Victoria Sandwich and any chocolate cake. The Victoria sandwich must have just jam through the middle and caster sugar on the top. Some people who have not made cakes before have already volunteered to start baking and it would be lovely to have even more people joining us. Please do not cut your cakes as we have to standardise the portions.

As Reverend Sally said, if you start now but have no freezer space, we can help. My phone number is 01628 783618. Sally Somerville

We have a further planning meeting for anyone who wishes to zoom in: 23rd November, 7.30 pm, Join Zoom Meeting

Passcode: 902314

Help staff the CTF we need lots of volunteers from Wednesday through to Sunday to staff the door, refreshments, raffle and other needs. Please sign up in church to say when YOU can help. The more people help the less time all need to give!

TREE VOTING POTS – NO CASH PLEASE!

As many people no longer carry cash we are moving to a token system in the tree voting pots. Bags of tokens may be bought in advance from the parish office (Tue – Fri 9.30 – 11.30 am) or after church services using a card. Bags of 10 tokens cost £5 (ie tokens are worth 50p). They will also be available for purchase on the door – but buy in advance and save queuing! For this year cash will also be accepted in the voting pots (but not encouraged!).

CoOp Community Fund

Fraudsters target church congregations

Criminals are experts at impersonating people, including clergy and church officers. The criminals are becoming more confident with church language and hope that you'll let your guard down.

How to spot an impersonation scam

- You receive a call, text, email, or message with an urgent request to make a payment, buy a gift card or move money to another account.
- You receive a message from someone in the church requesting urgent financial assistance.
- You're pressured to act immediately, or they demand secrecy.
- They ask for confidential information or your bank details.
- The sender's email address isn't one usually used by the church or diocese, or looks very slightly different.

Stay safe from fraud

- Stop and think before clicking links or replying to a message
- Email the church office or the diocese to check if a message is genuine
- Report suspicions of fraudulent activity to Action Fraud: 0300 123 2040 | actionfraud.police.uk

Clergy and leaders will never ask you for gift vouchers or an urgent transfer of money.
