The First Sunday in Lent

As we follow Jesus into the desert wilderness, we have space to reflect on our own hearts and our discipleship. Do make the most of opportunities offered for Zoom worship and other activities.

We will use a different order of service for Sunday mornings – it is attached to the weekly email, and also on our website. As part of each service, we will watch the weekly 'Come and See' video from Bishop Steven.

Morning Prayer continues daily, Tuesday – Saturday on Zoom at 9am; Evening Prayer, Friday at 5pm. Why not join in during Lent?

Sundays at Six continues on Zoom at 6pm on first and third Sundays each month. The next is led by Revd. Phyl, tonight and then 7th March.

Thought for the week:

You may like to reflect on the painting by Stanley Spencer: The Scorpion, one of his 'Christ in the Wilderness' series. In this painting Jesus does not kill the scorpion but holds it and looks at it tenderly as it sits in his swollen hands. Has it already stung him? He does not retaliate but goes on loving it. In his book on this series of paintings, Stephen Cottrell writes, 'Thus we see Jesus, not carrying the cross, not nailed to it, but squatting in the desert, holding the scorpion that can kill him, doing what it is in his nature to do; for as God's Son he comes to perfectly fulfil God's will, to be the suffering servant who reconciles us to God, and to do for us what we could never do for ourselves'.

Readings for Morning Prayer for the week beginning Sunday 21st February are:

Sunday	Psalm 77	Romans 10.8b-13
Monday	Psalm 11	Jeremiah 4. 19 - end John 5. 1-18
