Week commencing: 7th February 2021

The Second Sunday before Lent

It was lovely to see so many people at our online Christingle service last week. Charlotte, one of our younger friends, painted the lovely picture above, inspired by that service.

We will be using the order of service for a Word Service during Epiphany for the next two weeks leading up to Lent (even though we are now in 'ordinary time'). I do hope that many of you will be able to join us this Sunday at 10 am. We also hope that from this week folk will be phoning in to the service too – please call me if you'd like details of how to do this, or see the links at the end of this weekly sheet.

Lots of people are asking deep questions of faith at this time. Come and See is an invitation to everyone and anyone who feels adrift in this pandemic, whether or not they know anything about the Christian faith. We will be participating in this diocesan initiative as a church but there is lots to find out for yourself too – do look at the website – and perhaps encourage friends too to 'come and see' just what Jesus means to us.

Revd. Phyl will be using the course from Come and See during Lent in preparation for baptism/confirmation. If you think you might like to join that group please speak to Revd. Sally or Phyl asap.

Morning Prayer continues daily, Tuesday – Saturday on Zoom at 9am; Evening Prayer, Friday at 5pm.

Sundays at Six continues on Zoom at 6pm on first and third Sundays each month. The next is TONIGHT: 7th February, often using Night Prayer from the blue Prayers during Coronavirus booklet.

Roots at Home: https://www.rootsontheweb.com/media/22407/roots-at-home\_7-feb-2021.pdf

Thought for the week:

Jesus is the very centre of our faith. He was there at creation with the Father. He is seated in glory in heaven. And yet on the cross he showed just how much God loves each one of us – just as we are – and he died, and rose, for every one of us. Even though he is eternal and all powerful, he also knows what it is to live a human life, and he knows all that we are going through now. And he cares, deeply, for each of us.

Readings for Morning Prayer for the week beginning Sunday 7th February are:

Sunday	Psalm 29	Matthew 6.25-end
Monday	Psalm 30	Ecclesiastes 7.1-14	John 19.1-16
Tuesday	Psalm 36	Ecclesiastes 7. 15-end	John 19.17-30
Wednesday	Psalm 34	Ecclesiastes 8	John 19. 31-end
Thursday	Psalm 37 *	Ecclesiastes 9	John 20.1-10
Friday	Psalm 31	Ecclesiastes 11.1-8	John 20. 11-18
Saturday	Psalm 42	Ecclesiastes 11.9-end of 12	John 20.19-end

Prayer suggestions for this week:

- Give thanks for further approved vaccines for Covid19 and pray for those rolling it out, especially for Phyl and Jeanette
- For every family bereaved through Covid 19, and all others too
- Pray with our Archbishops, for our nation
- For those whose non-Covid care or treatment is on hold
- That we might be kind to each other – in ‘thought, word and deed’
- For all NHS staff, carers, Care Home staff and those caring for the sick
- For those who feel alone and are struggling with these long winter months
- For all online worship and other activities
- For school teachers, parents home schooling, and all children
- For our care for God’s world
- For our new prayer shawl ministry, and those who will receive shawls, in love
- For our brothers and sisters of faith at the Synagogue, Mosques, Gurdwara and elsewhere
- Those whose anniversary of baptism falls in February: Isaac Smalley and Elsie-Rae Jarnak
- For all those who live and work in Holmanleaze
- The sick and those who care for them: Monica Olley, Stan Swansborough, Tony Boaks, Mick Curley.
- Those who have died recently, and those who mourn them: Trevor Tilbury, Joan Rowe
- Those whose anniversary of death falls in February: Peter Sharp, Edward Dobson, Beryl Horsham, Valerie Merkel, Robert Crick, Daphne Lewis, Kenneth Dovey, Richard West, Helena Eaton, Doreen Leverkus, Monica Macaulay Brown, Jean Glossop, Doreen Palmer, Melanie Stuij, Rodgers Murwisi, Peter Curtis, Harvey Lovegrove, and Joan Bartholomew

Our church is floodlit at night.

This week the floodlighting has been sponsored this week by

Joan Lynch

In memory of Captain Sir Tom Moore, and in thanksgiving for his example

To sponsor the floodlighting just call or email Revd. Sally. There are plenty of weeks available this year.

What's on...

Church Social – Quiz: huge thanks to James for organising our quiz – and congratulations to Dave, Phyl and Rachel who narrowly pipped the competition to the winning post. James and Louisa would also love to participate in our quizzes so a willing volunteer to lead the next one would be most welcome – contact Revd. Sally.

Lent course: will run on Wednesday mornings at 11 am and Thursday evenings at 7.30 pm for 90 minutes. The two sessions each week will be the same. Please do try to stick with one group or the other. We will use Zoom to work through some excellent materials from the national church in a five- week course called Living in Love and Faith: Christian teaching and learning about identity, sexuality, relationships and marriage. I do encourage everyone to join in this opportunity to reflect on our own identity as children of God - and that of others too. The course booklet costs £5 if you'd like your own hard copy (there are still a few available) or they can be found online:

If you would like to phone in please let Revd. Sally know and she will edit the link to allow this.

Keeping Lent: giving things up may not be quite the order for Lent this year – many folk have already given up (though not voluntarily) most of the things that enrich their lives! So why not use the Friendly February calendar to challenge yourselves, or perhaps give to a particular charity, or join the Prayer Shawl Ministry, or do some spiritual reading – the Bible is a good place to start! Ask Sally, Terrie or Phyl for advice if you like. Or you may join us for Zoomed Morning Prayer once or twice a week (or every day) or say Night Prayer at home (order of service on the website).

Here are some good books for Lent reading, all available from Amazon Smile (for St Luke's) or Quench (online, see below) or Church House Bookshop online:

- Thy will be done, Stephen Cherry (Lord's prayer)
- Rooted in love, Sarah Mullally (daily readings)
- At home in Lent, Gordon Giles (everyday objects)
- The way of Julian of Norwich, Sheila Upjohn (Julian reflection)
- A cross in the heart of God, Samuel Wells (God's love)
- Walking in the way of the cross, Stephen Cottrell and Paula Gooder (Biblical stations of cross)
- Living His story, Hannah Steele (everyday faith)
- And, of course, the Love Lent booklet you should have, and there are many more books to browse.

Ash Wednesday: assuming that stats keep falling, there will be in-person services in church on Ash Wednesday, 17th February, at 10 am and 8pm. The evening service will be zoomed (but not recorded). These will be Holy Communion services with (self administered) ashing. Please book your place by emailing Revd. Sally. I can also deliver ashes to use with the zoomed service if essential, but will need some notice please.

Keeping busy

Inspire: Ruth (Admin) is going to pull together another edition of Inspire. Do email articles to the parish office by 28th February. Ideas: how you coped with the pandemic, recipes for Lent, book reviews, photos, poems and short stories, what God has been saying to you... And THANK YOU for all so far received!

Prayer Shawl Ministry it is never too late to join in this beautiful simple knitting ministry. Details are on our website and Revd. Terrie can tell you more.

Sharing reading with children: here's an idea that may appeal to families and older people, to take some stress from parents and encourage older folk. Are there any parents who would value having another adult (of any age!) listen to their child read on Zoom (or read a story to them), and any adults who would like to do that? If so, please let Revd. Sally know and we will set up a system and pairing – with a full risk assessment and proper safeguarding in place.

The Joy of Movement Exercise to music for the over 50's

PRAYER FOR THE NATION

In response to reaching the terrible milestone of 100,000 deaths from COVID-19, the Archbishops invite all to call on God in Prayer. Starting today we invite you to set aside time every evening to pray, particularly at 6pm each day. More than ever, this is a time when we need to love each other. Prayer is an expression of love. The Archbishops suggest that you place a light or a candle in your window, if it is safe to do so.

A number of prayers have been suggested
Here is the first of them

*****

we pray that God's love will surround all who mourn them, now and always

Gracious God,
as we remember before you the thousands who have died,
surround us and all who mourn with your strong compassion.
Be gentle with us in our grief,
protect us from despair,
and give us grace to persevere
and face the future with hope in Jesus Christ our risen Lord.
Amen.
